The Students
Australian College of Management and Innovation

This letter certifies that Australian College of Management and Innovation (ACMi) has partnered with Lifeskills Australia to support the mental health and well-being of their students with the provision of a dedicated counselling service which delivers:

- Face to Face, Telehealth or Phone consultations
- Appointments at numerous Perth & Adelaide Metro locations
- Diverse range of clinicians with the skills and experience to meet all needs.

What can Lifeskills Australia help you with:

- Managing and cultivating relationships with friends, family and peers
- Understanding the Australian way of life
- Education, career and work related stressors
- Work life balance and general well being
- Conflict and communication
- Isolation, grief and bereavement
- Stress, anxiety and depression
- And much more as nothing is out of scope for the Lifeskills Australia clinicians!

How much will it cost and how to make a booking:

Appointments can be made by calling 1800 870 080, emailing info@lifeskillsaustralia.com.au or using the Contact Us icon on our website www.lifeskillsaustralia.com.au. The cost is $198 per hour, which is payable on the day of the session, the fee quoted may be subject to change from time to time and can be reconfirmed at the time of booking.

We look forward to assisting you to create life balance and in the meantime any further questions can be addressed to our wonderful Admin Team on 1800 870 080.

Signed: Mary Worthington
